FRED WUNDENBERG DIES SUDDENLY

Passes Away At Pacific Heights Home After Long Illness

Frederick W. Wundenberg died suddenly about 8 o'clock last night at his home on Pacific Heights of heart fallure. He had been in illhealth for nearly two years, but his death was entirely unexpected. He was seized with an attack soon after dinner, and Dr. Hoffmann was immediately sent for. He came at once but was too late to do anything, Mr. Wundenberg having died before he arrived.

With the passing of Frederick W. Wundenberg Honolulu loses one of her kamaainas and a prominent figure in the financial circles of the city. He was the son of Godfrey Frederick Wundenberg, and was born at Hanalei June 23, 1850. He was educated in the Schools of Hawail, finishing at Punahou. In 1850 his family removed to California, but he returned three months later and has been a resident of Hawaii ever ince, with the exception of a short time which he spent in California after he had become persona non grata on account of alleged complicity in the revolution of 1905.

For a long time he was in the employ of Castle & Cooke, later entering the employ of Davies & Co. In 1886 he was made Postmaster General of the Kingdom, holding that post for five years. During 1891 and 92 he was a clerk in the Judiciary Department.

Mr. Wundenberg was married in 1900 to Miss Eastmuir, who survives as his widow. He leaves five sisters. Mrs. T. J. King, Mrs. J. H. Soper. Mrs. Anna Wright, Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. Darby, the latter a resident of California.

The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from Kawaishao Church, the pastor, Rev. H. H. Parker, officiating.

But the view here is that there s nothing behind it, except that the English and the Canadians are about to appreciate what has been known in Washington for years-that Japan regards the status of the United States and Canada as the same and will take her own means for removing danger of friction between herself and the two countries.
